

Chinese Restaurant at Bridal Veil Falls

The road in the canyon was on the right side of the river going up until we came to the Chinaman's restaurant & we crossed over to the left side on a bridge we used to eat at the Chinamen They all had long black hair braided in the back that hung down their back called a queue. They also wore little round black silk caps on their heads, and they served their meals dressed in black silk pants usually black with a light colored loose blouse at the top.

The bridge was a few rods west of the present Vivian Park bridge & Johnny Carter run Vivian Park & owned it

70 yrs ago

Old Chinese Restaurant
just below Bridal Veil Falls = No. side

old wooden bridge & long queue 35¢ soup & good meals 13 for 9

Chinese Restaurant at 2111 1st Ave